SUBJECT: IRELAND SUPPORTS ADDITIONAL GENEVA PROTOCOL

REF: SECSTATE 206948

Classified By: POL/ECON CHIEF MARY DALY, FOR REASONS 1.4 (B), (D)

(C) On November 17, emboff delivered reftel points to Department of Foreign Affairs UN/Terrorism and Illicit Drugs Section First Secretary Brian Cahalane. Cahalane said that Ireland supports the adoption of a Third Additional Protocol to the Geneva Conventions creating a neutral Emblem for the Red Cross/Crescent Movement. He added that while Ireland is unlikely to make an individual statement backing the protocol the Irish support will be realized by a statement likely to be made by the EU Presidency. Cahalane stated that based on internal EU discussions on the proactive measures the Swiss have taken in the Middle East, a successful outcome to the December conference is likely.
